

Welcome to the EQG Book Club

In January, will be starting a Quilters' Book Club.

The books we will be reviewing are from the Elm Creek Quilter's Series,
by Jennifer Chiaverini.

The first books selected are:

"The Quilter's Apprentice"
"The Quilter's Homecoming"
"The Aloha Quilt".

Approximately half of the members have been randomly chosen, and divided into small groups of about 6 people. These members will receive a copy of one of the books from our list.

The remaining members stay tuned ...

Groups are to connect the old fashion way, by telephone. We suggest the group "gets together" for their book review after 4 chapters have been read or about once every 3-4 weeks, but each group can decide what works best for them. Liz Argue has offered to be our Technical support person & will help groups set up group calls/ conference calling. Thank you Liz.

Copies of these the books are also available at the public library, or on Kobo, for anyone who doesn't get a hard copy but wants to read along. If you have read one of these books and want to make sure you don't get that book, please email Mona the name of the book you have already read to eqgmembership@gmail.com

Should you need your copy of the book in large print or audio version, please let Mona know and we will try to accommodate your request.

We hope you enjoy this initiative, but note this Book Club is optional. Should you choose to opt out please email us before December 20th with the note "no thanks" and send to eqgmembership@gmail.com

We hope you will follow along with us, and Happy Reading...
